

Your project title

Your team and statement of contribution

Noted that

- 5 – 10 mins for your presentation
- ENG103 Presentation Template (This is a guideline to help you get started; you can modify it to suit your own presentation)
- The prompt questions are designed to help you draft your presentation. You can add or modify them as needed.
- Additionally, you want to showcase that your project is truly working.
- See Task 3 Project Instruction and Guideline for more details

Agenda

- List your agenda to talk today. So that know what to expect.

Intro

- Tell us what your project is about? what is the purpose and what you try to solve?

Background and Motivation

- Why you choose this project? What motivate you?
- Be creative

Methodology

- Any design principles that you apply? you should apply the design principle for your project.
- Are you employing any software development lifecycle? E.g, Design principles? User centered-design, human centered-design, agile method, waterfall method etc?
- E.g. a picture of your architecture (low prototype or high prototype)

Implementation/Result/Discussion

- Show us your implementation and how it works?
- Experimentation? Result?

Conclusion

- The main summary of your project and future improvement